Lady Princess has a great passion and love for music and knows without a doubt, this is truly one of her callings; to minister and help touch the hearts of others, leading them to have a stronger passion to have a stronger passion to glorify the Lord Jesus Christ.

She also has a strong passion for empowering women (which she holds an annual women's forum) entitled "What's behind the lashes...what's under the mascara." She enjoys mentoring youth and helping the "seasoned saints" in any capacity needed. Lady Princess truly has a heart for God, a very humble spirit, an infectious smile, a tantalizing personality, loves people and embraces everyone who allows her to!

While ever being mindful of the quote "nothing ever goes away until it has taught us what we need to know." – Pema Chodron... she continues to live out the "divine blueprint" of her life with great anticipation, as the Lord has designed it!

Her mantra and desire is that "the Lord will continue to use her in His Service" as she strives daily to live her life according to Proverbs 31:10-31

A Letter From:

Dear Pastor's Wife,

For consistently supporting your husband spiritually, emotionally, and physically...thank you. Your love is his greatest earthly treasure.

For filling in the 'gaps' at church, for noticing the little things...thank you. It makes a difference. For smiling when your own heart is breaking...thank you. That takes grace. For all of your sacrifices, both visible and invisible...thank you. God sees them all.

For being authentic, for not trying to be superwoman...thank you. People can always relate to real. For modeling Godly living and for mentoring those who are young in the Lord...thank you. The next generation is changed because of this.

For bearing up under criticism and attack; for responding with humility, grace, and forgiveness time after time...thank you. You are like Christ in your suffering. For navigating an often hectic and unpredictable schedule with graceful flexibility...thank you. You make it look easy.

For burying your own grief; for setting your own burdens aside, in order to reach out and minister to others in their times of sorrow...thank you. People will never forget that you were there for them.

For nurturing your relationship with Christ above any other relationship...thank you. It shouldn't be any other way.

For leading through an example of servanthood, for serving with confidence and joy...thank you. You compel others to serve God with you. For embracing the privilege and high calling of ministry, for saying "yes" to life with a pastor...thank you. You make Christ's bride look beautiful.

XOXO,
A Kindred Spirit
